Religious Violence

This class will explore the issue of religious violence in the world today; looking at the relationship between violence and religion, and the role it plays in current events. It will also involve looking at the phenomenon of fundamentalism amongst the world's religions, including Christianity, Islam, and Hinduism.

Instructor: Dr. Elizabeth Leeper, Former Associate Professor of Church History, Wartburg Theological Seminary.

This course meets on Saturday mornings from 8:30-10:15 AM. Tuition: $150

Meeting Dates: Sept. 9, Oct. 14, Nov. 11, Dec. 9, Jan. 13, Feb. 10, Mar. 10, April 14, May 5

Rethinking Heaven, the Resurrection, and the Mission of the Church

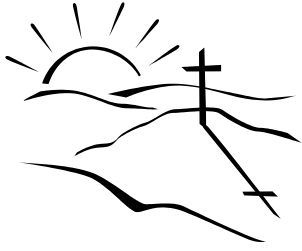

What do the resurrection of Jesus, his second coming, the Judgment, and the new creation have to say about our hope as Christians? Usually we think about that hope in terms of "heaven." But renowned New Testament scholar and teacher, N. T. Wright, says there is so much more to it than that. He leads us through a study of New Testament texts, in which we will constantly be "Surprised by Hope," as it transforms our personal faith and reshapes and revitalizes the mission of the Church. Join us as we read and discuss N. T. Wright's book, "Surprised By Hope: Rethinking Heaven, the Resurrection, and the Mission of the Church."

Instructor: Rev. Clarence Harms, Retired Pastor

NEW COURSE FORMAT: This class will only meet 3 times (Sept 9, Oct 14, and Nov 11) from 11:00 AM – 2:15 PM, and includes participating in the Lay School worship service and enjoying a meal together each week.
